

Can-Am/Frontier League All-Star Facts

- This is the fifth All-Star Game that the Can-Am League has participated in (2005, 2006, 2014, 2016, 2017). The Can-Am League is 2-2 all-time in those games, with one game using players for both teams (2014)
 - 2005: Can-Am League defeated Central League (American Association predecessor), 3-2, at Brockton
 - 2006: American Association defeated Can-Am League, 5-3, at El Paso
 - 2014: Can-Am League players were on both North (QUE/TR) and South (NJ/ROCK) teams in the American Association all-star game - South won, 7-0, at Winnipeg
 - 2016: Can-Am League players played on the South team in the American Association all-star game - North won, 6-1, at St. Paul
 - 2017: Can-Am League defeated American Association, 3-2, at Ottawa
- In those five games, Can-Am League teams Ottawa and Brockton (2005-2011) hosted All-Star games in 2017 and 2005, respectively
- The Frontier League All-Star Game has taken place since 1993 with the format being East Division vs. West Division. In 2018, the league changed the game's format to Rookies vs. Veterans.
- Can-Am League Teams (6): New Jersey Jackals (Little Falls, N.J.), Ottawa (Ontario) Champions, Quebec Capitales (Quebec City), Rockland Boulders (Pomona, N.Y.), Sussex County Miners (Augusta, N.J.), Trois-Rivieres (Quebec) Aigles
- 2018 Can-Am League Champion: Sussex County Miners (63-38 reg. season), Runner-up: Quebec Capitales (58-44 reg. season)
- Frontier League Teams (10): Evansville (Ind.) Otters, Florence (Ky.) Freedom, Gateway Grizzlies (Sauget, Ill.), Joliet (Ill.) Slammers, Lake Erie Crushers (Avon, Ohio), River City Rascals (O'Fallon, Mo.), Schaumburg (Ill.) Boomers, Southern Illinois Miners (Marion, Ill.), Washington (Pa.) Wild Things, Windy City (Crestwood, Ill.) Thunderbolts.
- 2018 Frontier League Champion: Joliet Slammers (54-42 reg. season), Runner-up: Washington Wild Things (54-42 reg. season)

Players who played in both the Frontier and Can-Am Leagues who made it to MLB

- Stephen Cardullo – London Rippers/Florence Freedom (2012), Rockland Boulders (2013-2015): Colorado Rockies (2016-2017)
- Steve Delabar – Florence Freedom (2008), Brockton Rox (2008-2009): Seattle Mariners (2011-2012), Toronto Blue Jays (2012-2015), Cincinnati Reds (2016)
- Robert Stock – Normal CornBelters (2015), New Jersey Jackals (2016): San Diego Padres (2018)

Current Frontier League or Can-Am League Managers who have managed in both leagues

- Brooks Carey – Normal CornBelters (2013-2017), New Jersey Jackals (2018-Present)